Lynn Wyllie-Watson

Lynn Wyllie-Watson (BEd, Hons) is currently working as the Centre Leader of the Ravenswood Child and Family Centre. Lynn is an experienced early childhood educator having worked as a Launching into Learning, kindergarten and prep teacher before becoming the Early Years Leader. In this role Lynn worked across all schools in Northern Tasmania supporting teachers to provide high quality early years programs. In 2011 she was awarded the AITSL Tasmanian Primary Teacher of the Year. In her role as Centre Leader, Lynn works in partnership with the local community and families, as well as government and non-government service providers to ensure that all children have access to the supports needed for them to have the best possible start to life. Lynn is passionate about the importance of childhood and the right of all children to have a childhood where they experience safety, love and opportunity.
