Sally Dooner

Sally Dooner is a child, youth and family therapist, she joined the Outreach Team within The Family Action Centre University of Newcastle in 2015, Sally has an extensive knowledge of working with marginalised individuals and families both in NSW and the Northern Territories with a particular interest in complex trauma. Her contributions to the team are influenced by her Dyadic Developmental Psychotherapy and work in this field.