Kerri Bird

Kerri Bird is the Team Leader/Family Support Worker in the Hunter Outreach Project. Kerri's continued work in this field is heavily influenced by her strong belief that families in all of their diversities have potential to change life pathways through successful relationships. Kerri has co-authored chapter 15 in Family Violence from a Global Perspective A Strengths Based Approach.